Which Generation Are You?

Did you know this is the first time in history that there are four distinct generations working side-by-side? Is this a challenge or opportunity? On October 20 at The Radnor Hotel, a full house of SPW attendees tackled this topic in an engaging and interactive presentation led by Maryellen Reilly Lamb, Senior Associate Director of MBA Career Management at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

MARYELLEN REILLY LAMB, THE WHARTON SCHOOL AND EILEEN CONNOLLY-ROBBINS, MLCC

Everyone there could relate to Lamb's description of distinct generational characteristics, as all 4 generations were in attendance: traditionalists, baby boomers, gen-xers and millennials. Lamb also provided expert tips on meeting the fundamental needs of each generation. "By understanding the differences in learning and motivation," says Lamb, "you'll discover how to maximize your team's diverse talents."

Our featured non-profit, PathWays PA, left with over 250 toiletries and other personal items for families in need. PathWays PA has served over 6,000 families in crisis by assisting them to become self sufficient. A big thank you to SPW for your continued generosity!

SPW Chair Recognized at Red Carpet

Terry D'Alessandro, EVP & Director of Community Banking at Firsttrust Bank and SPW Advisory Council Chair, was presented with the prestigious Chairman's Award at the annual Red Carpet Dinner on November 4. Established in 2001, this award recognizes and celebrates a member who has exhibited outstanding work and service to The Main Line Chamber of Commerce. Terry couldn't be more deserving!

From the Founder's Desk

"You can make more friends in two months by becoming interested in other people than you can in two years by trying to get other people interested in you." - Dale Carnegie

It's hard to believe that our first full year of SPW programming is almost complete. Thank you for all your support and involvement over the last year – without you, SPW would not be what it is today. We have an excellent line-up of speakers in store for you in 2011, so be sure to check out our new calendar. Reserve your seat now - it's never too early to register! We also have sponsorship opportunities available, so please feel free to contact me if you are interested.

As we look back on 2011, I am reminded of all the connections, relationships and opportunities that have resulted from SPW. I can't reiterate enough the importance of building and leveraging your connections, especially through SPW. Getting ahead in life is as much about who you know as what you know! Read Béke Beau's story from below, and you'll know what I mean. Do you have a story like Béke's? Tell me about it!

Enjoy the holidays and be sure to take time to relax. We'll see you on January 26 as we kick off 2011 with First Lady Judge Marjorie Rendell!

See you soon!

SPW Opens the Doors

Interview with Béke Beau, Celebrity Make-up Artist

SPW: How did you first get involved with the Chamber?

Béke: When I moved from NYC to the Main Line to start my company, I wanted to reach local businesses and get involved in the community. Joining the Chamber helped me to do that...and more. I jumped right in and got involved in SPW, which helped me to build so many new relationships - both personal and professional.

SPW: Which Chamber programs do you find most useful?

Béke: Because my clients are women, the SPW events have been most beneficial. They are informative, well attended and the networking is first class. Connecting with likeminded business professionals is such an integral piece to growing your business. Join a committee, attend the events and foster the relationships you make - the more involved you are, the more value you'll get out of your membership!

SPW: How has your investment and membership in the Chamber contributed to your business success?

Béke: The sky is the limit in terms of how you can use your Chamber Membership. Eileen and her team are so supportive and invite their members' ideas. Think creatively about the ways you can use your talents and present it to the Chamber Staff. This past year, Meg Kristel and I did just that when we presented SPW's "What Not to Wear" event. It was a huge success... I was able to build new relationships while helping three lucky Chamber members transform their look!

Volunteer Spotlight — MJ Hitz, PA Gifts and Awards

Whether we need an extra hand at the registration table or a new order of nametags with a two day turnaround, SPW can always count on MJ Hitz of PA Gifts and Awards. We all wish we had a friend like MJ. She is as genuine and honest as she is giving and humorous. You probably gave MJ your card at the last SPW event you attended. If not, you're bound to remember them next time because according to MJ, "that's no way to network."

Please join us in showing our appreciation to MJ for her constant support!
