Our Mission: ENGAGE

To provide professional women from diverse backgrounds a forum to engage in relationships that will empower them with knowledge and ideas to advance their career goals, while also encouraging them to make an impact in their community and on issues that affect the future of women in business.

Our Vision: EMPOWER

Our collaboration of professional women will stimulate change, assist in achieving new levels of equality in the workplace, as well as make positive contribution to the next generation of women and the quality of life in the Main Line region.

Our Commitment: ENCOURAGE

The Main Line Society of Professional Women is dedicated to be an influential group for young professionals through experienced executives. We encourage all generations to work together, learn from each other and to rise to the occasion when a new challenge presents itself. SPW is committed to helping individuals become active in their communities where they work and play through partnerships with Main Line Chamber non-profit organizations.

For more information about SPW, please contact Eileen Connolly-Robbins, Executive Vice President & COO of The Main Line Chamber of Commerce at 484-253-1104 or erobbins@mlcc.org
