

Main Line Suburban Life • February 1, 2012

Promoting women's leadership

Almost 300 people attended the sold-out Jan. 26 SPW event, "When Will Women Be Equal?" featuring Lynn Yeakel and Rosemarie Greco, co-chairs of Vision 2020, a national equality initiative. At the event, Wells Fargo presented a $1,000 donation to the initiative to help it continue its mission of achieving shared leadership between women and men. Pictured from left: Ergetu Merete, senior vice president/regional vice president, Wells Fargo; Eileen Connolly-Robbins, executive vice president and chief operating officer, the Main Line Chamber of Commerce; Greco; Cheryl Brida, senior vice president and business-banking manager, Wells Fargo; and Yeakel. Wells Fargo, an SPW Champion sponsor, donates $1,000 at each event to the featured nonprofit.