Unlocking the Power of We: Building a Safe and Inclusive Workplace

Domonique Revere, PhD

With Chelsea Biemiller, Associate Attorney, Litigation, Stradley Ronon Stevens & Young, LLP and Radnor Police Officers Jennifer Cocco and Kaitlin Karmilowicz

Wednesday, January 31, 2024 • 11am-1:30pm • The Desmond Hotel, Malvern

Gain a deeper understanding of psychological safety and its profound impact on workplace culture, team performance and individual well-being. Through group discussions, case studies and hands-on activities, Dr. Dom will show us how to recognize barriers, build trust and inclusion, and cultivate psychological safety within teams and organizations. Chelsea will offer introductory remarks on working with employers to ensure that employees can safely report concerns about harassment or misconduct — and what to do if an employer is unresponsive. Jennifer and Kaitlin will give a short demonstration on physical safety and situational awareness, empowering us to act with confidence instead of anxiety.

We are excited that our final event of 2024 will feature Sheinelle Jones, a co-host of NBC News' 3rd hour of TODAY and a mid-week correspondent for TODAY.

Tentative date: November 14, 2024.
Details to come!

Finding Justice: The Untold Story of Women's Fight for the Vote

Amanda Owen, Filmmaker, and Executive Director, Justice Bell Foundation

Thursday, March 14, 2024 • 5pm-7:30pm • Bryn Mawr Film Institute

Join us for this special evening of celebration and refreshments. We'll enjoy the screening of Amanda's empowering documentary film followed by a conversation with her. The 19-minute film is part present-day detective story, part historical account of the voting rights movement. It tells the inspiring tale of a band of intrepid women and a one-ton bronze bell that became a celebrated suffrage icon. The Justice Bell—modeled after the Liberty Bell—attracted nationwide attention and helped rally support for passage of the 19th Amendment. Amanda will introduce us to some Pennsylvania suffragists, their successes and sacrifices, and what they pass down to us, including lessons in tactics and strategies applicable to current initiatives to expand voting rights.
